Safety Policy

Policy Statement

"As Management, we accept our responsibility for safety. It is the policy of this company to provide a healthy and safe place to work for all employees. The personal safety and health of each employee are of primary importance to us. Since we believe all injuries can be prevented, our goal will be zero accidents and illnesses."

"In order to accomplish this goal, we plan to follow the company rules and procedures that have been developed as well as all applicable state, federal, and local codes and regulations. We expect our employees to do the same."

"Your cooperation is needed. The written safety rules contained in our Safety Programs are minimum requirements. They cannot cover every conceivable hazard, but we believe there is a safe way to do every job. You need to use common sense and ask your supervisor whenever you are not sure what to do. We expect you to read, know, and follow this safety program."

"No job is so important and no order is so urgent that we cannot take time to perform our work safely. We will expect each employee to cooperate in making this program a success."

Employee's Safety Responsibilities

- ▶ Obey all safety rules, procedures, and instructions.
- ▶ If you are not sure how to perform a job safely, ask for help.
- ▶ Maintain and know how to use all appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE).
- ▶ Do not come to work under the influence of any alcohol or illegal drugs.
- ▶ Attend and participate in all company safety meetings.
- ▶ Know where to get first aid. Know where to find and how to use the nearest fire extinguisher.
- ▶ If you become aware of a safety problem, notify your supervisor.

Supervisor's Safety Responsibilities

- ▶ Plan every job with safety in mind to make sure the job site is in compliance with this safety policy and state and federal regulations.
- ▶ Require and enforce the use of personal protective equipment and other safety equipment.
- ▶ Notice and immediately correct unsafe actions or conditions.
- ▶ Conduct weekly "tool box" safety meetings. Document attendance at these meetings.
- ▶ Enforce this safety policy and discipline anyone who willfully violates his or her responsibilities or these safety rules.
- ▶ Complete a Supervisor's Accident Investigation Report on all accidents no matter how minor. Be sure to take corrective action.
- ▶ Make sure only qualified employees operate heavy equipment.
- ▶ Make sure all subcontractors comply with company safety policy. Warnings to subcontractors should be documented in writing.
- ▶ Provide for proper protection of the general public from job site hazards.
- ▶ Take time to properly orient new employees on safety. Employees must be shown what to do and how to do it safely.
- ▶ Set a good example to the other employees by complying with all safety rules and responsibilities yourself.

Arcadis attempts to prevent compulsory redundancies. In cases where these are unavoidable, the company promotes responsible redundancy procedures.

Arcadis promotes a good work-life balance for its employees and applies workplace and worktime flexibility strategies to accommodate this.

If Arcadis employees require time for dependent care, the Company aims to accommodate this.

Health, Safety & Environmental Policy

In carrying out our activities, we recognize that our work force is priority number one. Our policy, in so far as it is reasonably practicable to do so during the course of work or duties being undertaken, is to minimize risk and to prevent injury, illness and incidents from occurring to any employee and those who may be affected by their work including contractors, sub-contractors, those self - employed and visitors.

While duties and tasks may be delegated, in order to ensure that we are fully compliant with all relevant statutory health and safety legislation, common law, approved codes of practice, and other requirements to which we subscribe to from time to time, senior management retains overall responsibility.

To guarantee that our policy is successfully implemented, our top-management provides adequate and appropriate resources as is reasonably practicable, including access to competent specialists advice where necessary.

Information from risk assessments, performance-monitoring activities, employee feedback, and assistance from designated health and safety consultant' so refused to identify the health and safety training needs of employees while providing process that will enable us to continually improve our health and safety performance.

All of our employee's are provided with such information, training, and instruction as may be necessary in order for them to be able to carry out their task in healthy, safe, and efficient environment.

An effective system for the communication of health, safety and welfare information is maintained so that employees' are made aware of the known or suspected hazards associated with or arising out of the work or duties assigned and to raise awareness of their own individual health and safety obligations.

The process of communicating this policy is extended to all interested parties upon request and to companies who carry out work on behalf Of KURKI INTERNATIONAL for Civil and Electro Mechanical Works from time to time.

Our policy is periodically reviewed by senior management, to take into account changes in legislation, changes in the nature and range of activities carried out by the company, and to take advantage of operational experience, negative and positive, as often as may be necessary.
